WARREN COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE 550 JUSTICE DRIVE

CANINE VEST PRESENTATION

June 2, 2014
10:00 a.m.

Warren County Sheriff's Office two canine deputies and the Lebanon Division of Police canine officer will receive bullet and stab-resistant vests courtesy of a local veterinarian's effort. Dr. Rich Coleman of the 4 Paws Veterinary Hospital in Lebanon raised the funds to purchase the vests.

Sheriff Larry Sims and Lebanon Police Chief Jeff Mitchell, as well as canine deputies Axel and Kash and officer Kaiser, will accept the vests today from Dr. Coleman at the Sheriff's Office. The short ceremony will begin at 1 PM. Members of the media are invited. There will be plenty of opportunity to photograph the dogs and their handlers.

Here's the info on the ballistic vests:

- Purchased from International Armor Corp. out of Tustin, California.
- They are described as: "K-9 One Vest Stab-Ballistic, Threat Level 2"
