Warren County Detectives Discover Buried Vehicle

January 28, 2016
3:50 p.m.

On Thursday, January 28, 2016, at 10:00 A.M., Detectives and Deputies from the Warren County Sheriff's Office responded to 9762 Dixie Highway, in Franklin Township, to investigate a report of a vehicle that was possibly buried on the property.

With the assistance of members of the Warren County Engineer's Office, an excavation was conducted, and a vehicle was located. The vehicle was a 1960s model Mercury convertible, blue in color, and it was buried approximately ten feet underground. Members of the Sheriff's Office Crime Scene Unit investigated and processed the scene, but they uncovered no evidence of any crime.
