Deputies Seek to Identify Hit And Run Driver

Update:

July 26, 2017
12:00 P.M.

This morning, Deputies from the Warren County Sheriff's Office arrested Timothy Tacket, age 30, of South Lebanon and charged him with Reckless Operation, Leaving The Scene Of An Accident and Driving Under Suspension. He was booked into the Warren County Jail and will appear in Mason Court.

Mr. Tacket was charged after an investigation revealed he was the driver of the black Ford F150 which struck seven vehicles in the parking lot of McDonalds on Kings Mills Road in Deerfield Township yesterday.

The Warren County Sheriff's Office would like to thank the public for their assistance with helping identify Mr. Tackett.
