Suspects wanted in large theft from storage unit.

Warren County Sheriff's Office Detectives are looking for two suspects who stole a large amount of audio/video equipment and tools on May 16th, from a storage facility at 3330 St. Rt. 350, in Lebanon Ohio.

The victim provided security video footage showing two white males in a 1985 to 1987 Chevrolet truck, that is flat black with rust holes over the passenger rear wheel and stickers on the rear window.

Detectives are hoping someone recognizes the passenger or the vehicle. Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Paul Barger at 513-695-1280 or Crimestoppers at 513-352-3040.

Photos of the truck and the passenger are attached.
