Warren County Sheriff's Office Investigating Scam Phone Calls

The Warren County Sheriff's Office is warning citizens about scam phone calls. Citizens have reported receiving phone calls from suspects identifying themselves as law enforcement. These suspects tell the victims that there is a problem with their bank accounts. The suspects then scam the victims out of money to get the bank account fixed. Victims have been taken for several thousands of dollars. We are warning citizens to contact their financial institutions in reference to their accounts, prior to speaking with any person about their bank accounts.
